Numbers, Numbers Everywhere
Names:
Nojan
Asal
Media
My name is Roy.
Today is Saturday.
Look at my room.
What numbers do you see?
I put on my clothes. There is a number seven on my cap and a number eleven on my shirt.
This is my house.
My address is 10 park street.
The number is on the door.
Can you see my father’s car?
Today is April 1st.
It is my birthday.
I am nine years old.
I have twenty dollars.
Thank you Uncle Jim.
I am calling my friend, Jeff. His phone number is 563728. My phone number is 729145. What is your phone number?
We are going to town. I want to buy a toy with My money. This is our bus. It is number 106.
Look at all these prices.
The car is eight dollars.
The robot is twelve dollars.
How much is the kite?
I can buy four toys.
I have twenty dollars and they are only eighteen dollars.
I can see many numbers.
There are numbers on stores.
There are numbers on buses.
There are numbers on walls.
What channel do you want to watch?
I don’t know. Let’s see what’s on Channel one.
Surprise!
Happy Birthday, Roy.
Happy Birthday to you.
You are the birthday boy.